This little fellow used to live at 715 North Twenty-fifth Street, Richmond, but is now at Old Point, Virginia. In March, 1910, he was terrilly burned, in Richmond, and has ever since been under the care of a physician at Old Point. By constant treatment, grafting of skin, and every medical attention, the little fellow has shown gradual improvement. As will be seen by the picture, his arm is in a plaster-paris cast.
